

Indo-Swiss Training Centre Shines at TechInvent-2017 organized by Chandigarh University

The teams consisting of (Gaurav Baweja, Dheeraj Kumar, Pulkit, Amit Chander) and (Puneet Paul, Ankit Lakhani, Harshit Dhiman, Prince Kumar) both from students of final year - Electronics Engineering of Indo Swiss Training Center, CSIO, Chandigarh brought laurels to the Institute by bagging 1st Prize (Rs. 5000 + Certificate) and 2nd prize (Rs. 3000 + Certificate) in the event IoT Patrons organized by CSE department of Chandigarh University on 31st March – 1st April 2017 during TechInvent -2017 (An annual congregation of engineering, science and technology students, being organized by Chandigarh University).

The students showcased the prototype of “IoT based Home Automation System” and “Digi-Meter”.

In addition the team consisting of (Vaibhav Punia, Aatish Payal, Ajay Kumar, Mukul Sharma) from students of second year - Electronics Engineering bagged 3rd prize (Rs. 3000 +Certificate) in Robo Soccer being organized by ECE department of Chandigarh University. Prof. R.K. Sinha Director CSIR-CSIO and Mr. Narinder Singh Jassal, Principal ISTC congratulated the students and the faculty of for the achievement.

Team: IoT Based Home Automation (Gaurav Baweja, Amit Chander, Pulkit and Dheeraj Kumar) from left to right.

Team: Digi-Meter (Harshit Dhiman, Ankit Lakhani, Prince Kumar and Puneet Paul) from left to right.